ADMINISTRATIVE CHANGES EFFECTED -- Sofia, Izvestiya, 8 Sep 53

In accordance with Ukase No 368 of the Presidium of the People's Assembly, the towns of Lom and Gorna Oryakhovitsa will be excluded from the list of towns which form separate administrative units directly under the jurisdiction of their respective okrug people's soviets.

The town of Kurdzhali [near the Rhodope mining area] is formed into a separate administrative unit directly under the jurisdiction of the [Khaskovo] Okrug People's Soviet.

[According to Decree No 446 of the Council of Ministers, published in Izvestiya 31 July 1953, all Bulgarian cities are directly under the jurisdiction of either their respective okrug people's soviets or their respective okoliya people's soviets. Cities under the jurisdiction of the former have a much larger local government and probably are of greater significance than cities which are under the jurisdiction of the latter.]
